

WACKENHUT

SERVICES INCORPORATED

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 12, 2008

Media Contact: Rob Davis (803-952-7582)

EDDIE RAY JOINS WACKENHUT AT SAVANNAH RIVER SITE

AIKEN, S.C. – Wackenhut Services Incorporated, the security contractor at the Department of Energy's Savannah River Site, is pleased to announce the addition of Eddie Ray as Director of Administration. Mr. Ray is assuming this position from Gene McCarthy, who has announced his retirement. In his new position, Mr. Ray will direct the oversight of seven departments, consisting of 66 employees, with an annual operating budget of approximately $8.3 million.

Mr. Ray retired from the United States Marine Corps in February 2008 with over 30 years of service. During his distinguished military career he served in a variety of troop and staff assignments that included leadership positions from squad leader to battalion commander.

Mr. Ray's most recent assignment was at Parris Island, S.C., where he directed all telecommunications and information processing technologies and led Marine Corps recruiting efforts for the eastern half of the United States.

Operational assignments include Commander of a rifle company; Battalion Commander of the 2nd Light Armored Reconnaissance Battalion; and, G-3/Training Officer for the 1st Marine Division.

His staff assignments include tours at United States Southern Command; Marine Corps Air Ground Combat Center; and, Headquarters United States Marine Corps.

Mr. Ray possesses a Bachelor and Masters Degree and is currently enrolled in a Doctorial Program. He is also a graduate from the Marine Corps Staff College and Naval War College.

NOTE TO EDITORS:

The photo is available in high-resolution format for publication.

XXX